SOURCE:

1. In compliance with a directive issued by the Central Committee of the SED, Deba Wieland ordered the preparation of an article criticizing the Lower House in Bonn for an alleged preponderance of nobles and industrialists in its membership.
2. When it turned out that only 17 persons fell into the indicated categories, rather than 200 as had been expected, Deba Wieland, on 19 September, urged that further efforts be made to list all persons with capitalistic ties in any form.
